

WILLIAMSON COUNTY FARM BUREAU SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarship Mission Statement

The Williamson County Farm Bureau is awarding several academic scholarships to deserving candidates enrolling into baccalaureate, trade, or technical educational institutions.

Eligibility Criteria

Scholarships will be awarded to deserving candidates who are attending college or technical schools during the 2024-25 academic year. Applications will be available on January 1, 2024, and must be received by March 31, 2024. Any interviews required will be scheduled shortly thereafter.

10 scholarships @ $1000 (minimum) each will be awarded.

Rules for Eligibility include:

- Must be a graduating senior, or currently enrolled undergraduate student in a college or a technical school program,
- Must be a member, child of or under legal guardianship of a current Williamson County Farm Bureau member in good standing. New members are welcome to apply,
- Must have an equivalent of an accumulative 2.5 grade point average,
- May be subjected to a formal interview process with members of the scholarship committee or designate,
- Utilize the award money during the 2024-25 academic year.

Before receiving a scholarship, recipient must submit proof of school registration, social security number, name, and address of financial aid office/director at the school they will be attending. Submit these items within 30 days prior to recipient needing the scholarship. All scholarship funds will be mailed directly to the financial aid office and will be distributed directly through them. Any monies left over or refunded will remain in the student's scholarship account at school or be returned to the WCFB.
